TEACHERS CORNER

A PARENT'S SUPPORT, A CHILD'S STRENGTH

SUSHMA PITTA

Parents play one of the most important roles in a child's growth and success. A child's education does not happen only in the classroom—it continues at home through the love, guidance, encouragement, and values provided by parents.

1. Provide emotional support

Children need to feel loved, valued, and understood. When parents listen to their children and encourage them, children develop confidence and self-esteem.

2. Encourage learning

Parents can create a positive learning environment at home by helping children develop good study habits, reading with them, asking about their day, and showing interest in their learning.

3. Teach values and discipline

Schools provide academic knowledge, while parents play a major role in teaching values such as honesty, kindness, respect, responsibility, patience, and empathy.

4. Appreciate effort, not just results

Instead of focusing only on marks and achievements, parents should appreciate the child's effort and progress. This helps children understand that mistakes are opportunities to learn.

5. Build independence

Parents should guide children rather than doing everything for them. Giving children age-appropriate responsibilities helps them become responsible, confident, and independent.

6. Work together with teachers

When parents and teachers communicate regularly and work as a team, they can better understand the child's strengths, challenges, interests, and needs.

7. Be a good role model

Children learn by observing adults. When parents demonstrate positive habits—such as reading, being respectful, managing time, and solving problems calmly—children are more likely to follow them.

VANI

AI AND THE TEACHER
A POWERFUL PARTNERSHIP, NOT A REPLACEMENT

For all its intelligence, AI can process information, but it cannot inspire a soul. Education is fundamentally human. A teacher perceives a student's anxiety, celebrates their small victories, instills values, and ignites the spark of curiosity. AI can never replicate that empathy and moral guidance. Its true role is to empower the teacher - by automating lesson planning, analyzing student performance data, identifying learning gaps, and suggesting personalized interventions. AI will handle the information; the teacher will handle the inspiration. Together, they form the most powerful partnership in modern education.

MY ROLE IN NATION BUILDING

Every citizen has certain duties towards the nation. A nation is not only its land and government, but also its people, culture, values, and environment. As a responsible citizen, I believe that I have a role to play in the progress of my country.My first duty is to respect the Constitution, national symbols, laws, and the rights of others. As a student, I should study sincerely, remain disciplined, develop useful skills, and become a responsible person who can contribute to society.I should keep my surroundings clean, protect nature, save water and electricity, and avoid wasting resources. Helping those in need, respecting people from different backgrounds, promoting unity, and avoiding hatred and misinformation are also my responsibilities. Patriotism is not only about words or displaying the national flag; it is reflected in our everyday actions. By being honest, hardworking, caring, and responsible, I can do my part in making my nation cleaner, stronger, and better.

AAISHWARYA

WHAT FREEDOM MEANS TO ME

Freedom to me means having the right to make choices, express my thoughts, and follow my dreams. As a seventh grader, it gives me the confidence to choose what I enjoy, ask questions, share my ideas, and discover my talents.However, freedom does not mean doing whatever we want. It comes with responsibility. We must make wise choices, respect others, follow rules, and understand how our actions affect the people around us.Freedom also gives us the courage to learn from our mistakes, speak up when something is unfair, and respect different opinions. It helps us grow into confident and responsible individuals.For me, freedom is a precious gift—the freedom to be myself, the responsibility to do what is right, and the opportunity to dream, learn, and build a better future.
